WARNING TO MOTORISTS.
William Symmonds, of Briston-bill, was summoned by the police at Lambeth presented and driving a motor-car to the common danger of passengers. Mr. Pirth defended.
Mr. C. H. Devey, a gentleman residing at Streatham, stated that on the afternoon of the 27th December he was occupying the front set.

Sir,—For the sake of humanity, let us hope a further trial of the poor man Gardiner will take place immediately. Whether guilty or not guilty he ja not, let us hope, to wait until June. Pray use your influence to attain this.—Yours, etc. Wolverton. HUMANITY, under our barbarous law a man charged wi murder may spend the rest of his life in prisa appearing at a public torture once in every a months. You well describe it as a "sh horror." Is it want of imagination, Sir, the permits the English people to maintain su laws?—Yours, etc., C. HEATH. Pen-ygross, N. Wales, January, 27.
